Kay & Family, Please accept my sincere condolences, & heart-felt prayers, in the loss of Dave. We became friends, while neighbors, in Waterford's Foxwood Isle condos. I'll always recall fondly, Dave's kindness, helpful attitude, & dry wit. He was constantly, offering food, drink, or fun pontoon rides. He will be missed. He went peacefully, into the loving arms, of our Dear Lord, & will watch over us, from Heaven. I'm thankful, to have known him, as a mentor, friend, & inspiring man. Love, Glen Worgull, Okauchee WI.♥♥

David and I had a special relationship when we were growing up; in fact we were going to get married! We were so fond of each other. My mom told me that first cousins couldn't marry until age 55!! To an 11 year old that was an eternity soooo we just got on with our lives but the bond and affection was always there. Rest in peace dear cousin you will always be on my mind and in my heart.
