Marilyn and I were very sorry to learn of Robin's death. He was a kind and gentle man who also held strong views and was not hesitant to express them. Wilson's Coffee and Tea reminded me of the TV sitcom, "Cheers" where everybody knows your name. It was that kind of place. We met new people and made new friends there, and will continue to do so. Blessings to Diane, Renae, and Neal as you continue to carry on Robin's legacy. Joe and Marilyn Kiemen
