Gary David Keller

SEP 29, 1949 - JAN 14, 2023

Racine – Gary David Keller, 73, passed away unexpectedly on January 14, 2023.

Gary was born in Racine to Joyce Elaine Keller on September 9, 1949. He was adopted as an infant by his maternal grandparents: Walter Herbert Keller, and Ruby Olivia Petersen Keller.

Gary was a Washington Park High School graduate in 1967. He also graduated from the University of Wisconsin – Parkside in June 1971. Gary was employed for many years at Modine Manufacturing as a computer software and hardware specialist. He worked various subcontracting jobs as well.

Gary was a member and former president of the Data Processing Management Association (DPMA), a computer and software organization. Because of his interest in horse training, showing, and racing, he was also a member of the American Quarter Horse Association. Gary also enjoyed bowling, archery, tennis, muscle cars, and music, especially when playing his guitar.

Gary will be lovingly remembered by his cousins: Keith (Betsy Boyd) Keller, and Kathleen Keller; Kathleen's children: Joe (Sarah) Blackford, Dan (Elizabeth) Blackford, Sean (Porter) Blackford, and Valerie Keller; Keith's son, Michael (Kristi) Keller; Lois Petersen Varley, and her children: Jackie Varley Breeden, and Karen Varley Wirtz; and many friends.

Gary was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Walter and Ruby Keller; mother, Joyce Keller; and an uncle and aunt, Walter and Dolores Keller.

A celebration of Gary's life will be held at the Wilson Funeral Home on Monday, January 23, 2023, beginning at 10:00 AM with an open mic. ceremony at 10:30 AM. Donations to the American Diabetes Association have been suggested.

Gary was a lifelong friend of my brother, David Kristopeit. It has been mentioned that he passed away on his way to Kewpee's for the usual Saturday morning coffee gang with the friends he and Dave shared. Jim(Beak) Sisak, Mike Hagen, Tom Davis, and several others. Brother Dave wouldn't have been there that day...he was losing his battle with cancer. He passed away today, Thursday January 19th. Hopefully they will be together soon.
