Aunt Jane will always be remembered as a smiling loved one greeting us at the door of her beautiful farm. Her hugs were strong and meaningful, filled with true spirit. I always felt like one of her kids when we were with her. The smile on her face and her open arms will always be remembered by me. She and Uncle Frank would tease each other and make us all laugh. Those memories will be cherished. I know my Mom and Dad loved her, too. They always said she was a saint, so generous and loving to our family. We know how difficult it will be for her sons, daughters-in-law and many grandchildren to live without her. Just know she is with Frank now and at peace. I hope you all will find comfort in the fond memories we all share of Jane.

My memories of Aunt Jane are very special to me and she was certainly my favorite Aunt. Always happy to see everyone and had a welcoming smile for all. I remember Aunt Jane in her kitchen whipping up fantastic meals and homemade pies and always feeding whomever walked through her door. It was always fun times with Uncle Frank and his funny stories, jokes and teasing Aunt Jane. I will treasure the memories I have of Uncle Frank and Aunt Jane, they are together again in Heaven. God Bless the wonderful sons they raised.

I have wonderful childhood memories of Aunt Jane. She made the very best pie crust. My mom and Aunt Angie and Aunt Jane would get together in late summer and bake what seemed like hundreds of pies, then freeze them. Mom bragged about Aunt Jane's pie crust. That's when I learned what truly good pie crust was. To this day, every time I eat a piece of pie, I compare the crust to Aunt Jane's crust. No many have been as good. Another fond memory of her was when she introduced me to sugar toast. I was at her house and I was hungry for something sweet. She asked me if I ever had sugar toast. It wasn't fancy but her treat was made with love and I enjoyed every bite. Aunt Jane will always remain alive in my mind as a loving caring person. Love Cookie
