Lillian Ida Petz

Racine- Ms. Lillian Ida Petz, 90, passed away at Becker-Shoop Center on Thursday, November 13, 2008.

Lillian was born in Racine to the late Henry and Ida Petz on March 15, 1918. She lived most of her life in Racine and was employed for many years at Hamilton Beach Company and Sheridan Products before her retirement in 1981.

Ms. Petz was a charter member of Racine Assembly of God Church and had a life interest in Sunday School. She enjoyed playing both the piano and organ, and also corresponded regularly with missionaries and foreign relatives.

Lillian is survived by numerous cousins and other relatives.

Funeral services will be held at Racine Assembly of God on Monday, November 17, 2008 at 2:00 pm with Pastor Scott Brownell officiating. Private interment will follow at West Lawn Memorial Park. Visitation will be on Monday at 1:00pm until service time. Memorials may be directed to Racine Assembly of God Bible School Scholarships.

Nancy Cumberland Palmer posted:

Lillian was my Sunday School teacher at the Park Avenue Assembly of God church, I remember her asking my mother if she could take 'the girls' out for icecream after church one Sunday night. That was so nice of her, it was an unexpected treat for the young girls. My condolences to the family.
