“ Paula was always an upbeat person, always smiling and laughing. My husband and I met Paula and Lance on an MS walk years ago, the thing in common we had was ridding Triumph motorcycles. Our sympathy to Lance and Paula's family for a loss that was to soon. Kathy & Doug Aretz

“ Like so many I knew Paula from walks in the dog park. The first time was when I ran into a dog wearing a bell trailing behind her. I'm not sure but I think the dog was named Bell and she was not happy to be walking. We ran into each other often and shared some walks together. We were at the park at quiet times when others were working. But we both had disabilities so dogs became center to our days. I had to stop the walks but then my husband and I started running into Lance and Paula at a variety of resturants 4 or 5 times a year. It was so obvious they were very much in love. I didn't know them that well, but you can tell when you see a happy couple. I am so sorry for this loss Lance. I wondered what dog Paula was holding in the picture... never saw one that looked that weird. It's a goat! I loved it. Pattie Seitz
